

Walter Barnes

Chief, Special Projects Bureau

Division of Audits

California State Controller's Office

Professional Experience

Walter Barnes is Chief of Special Projects with the State Controller's Office, Division of Audits. He has 45 years of experience as a supervisor, manager and executive with several state agencies, including: State Controller's Office, California Institute of Regenerative Medicine, Departments of Health Care Services and Social Services. During this time he has carried out assignments in a variety of programs, including: budgets, financial management, administrative services, audit programs, anti-fraud programs, quality control and refugee and immigrant services.

Education

Walter holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration, with a minor in Accounting, from California State University, Sacramento.